President's Message

TRUE DISCIPLESHIP IS EXPRESSED IN LOVE.

"All men will know that you are my disciples if you love one another." (John 13:35)

Usually the first mental association we make with college life is lectures, books, papers, assignments, and intellectual stimulation! Jesus in the training of His class of disciples focused on the primacy of love! His followers were to be recognized not by their great insights, although these were to be apparent, not by their skilled rhetoric, but by the quality of love (AGAPE) in their lives - "all men will know that you are my disciples if you love one another."

Sometimes, we as evangelicals, fail to acknowledge the high priority which the Scriptures place on love. Paul concludes his great chapter on love in I Corninthians with the words "And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love."

Somehow we feel more comfortable in emphasizing the priority of faith. Since the Reformation, faith has been viewed as the greatest (SOLA FIDE). While it is true that faith must precede love and that through faith alone we are saved, love is to be the foremost mark of a true believer of Christ. While it is also true that such love is in the first place to be directed to God, it's concrete manifestation in our world is to be seen in our loving relationship to fellow Christians and to all men. - "All men will know that you are my disciples if you love one another."

In his gospel, John in chapter thirteen, sees such love modelled in Christ. He took the towel and the basin and washed His disciples' feet. After that He said, "A new commandment I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another." The Lord taught us that love at its deepest levels meant being existentially concerned about the personal holiness and growth of fellow believers. He commanded us to wash each others feet, that is, to minister to each others needs so as to assist in cleaning and purifying each other in the midst of our daily tasks and our calling in the world.

It is my hope that during your time at OBC you have had the exhilarating experience of having your feet washed through loving and concerned Christian fellowship. It is important that you leave with us a record of your academic achievements and your Christian service involvement. Jesus would suggest that it is even more important that you leave a legacy of love - love to your Lord and love to your fellow students. "And now these three remain: faith, hope, and love. But the greatest of these is love."

Victor Adrian

Chanceller's Message

TRUE DISCIPLESHIP

The text chosen for the "81" yearbook is a good one indeed, in fact, unsurpassed - "All men will know that you are My disciples if you love one another" (John 13:35, NIV).

To be sure, herein lies the basis of true unity. John in his first epistle wrote - "We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love our brothers. Anyone who does not love remains in death" (I John 3:14,15).

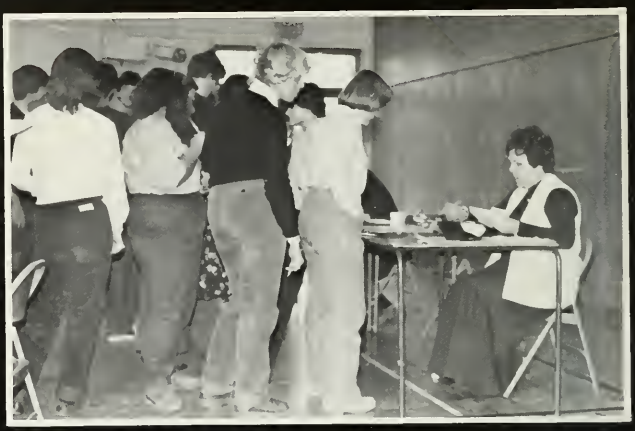
The foundation of it all stands out as a beacon light - "For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have everlasting life."(John 3:16)

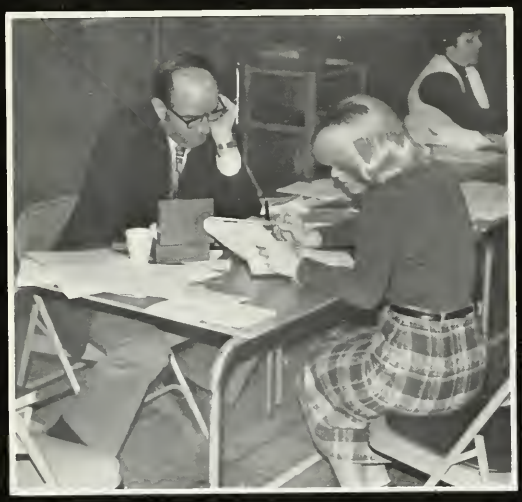
In the intimate high priestly prayer of Christ to His Father in heaven, we read these stirring words - "Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son that your Son may glorify You. For You granted Him authority over all men that He might give eternal life to all those You have given to Him. Now this is eternal life: that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, Whom You have sent ..."

Young people, you can come to possess much learning during these days and years at Ontario Bible College. In fact, some of you will excel. You might well be known as "the brain" in your class, if not in the whole school. But, unless you are characterized by that love of which we've been reading, and which in turn promotes genuine unity it is all in vain. In fact, Paul describes it as but a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. In his concluding words in the great "love chapter", I Cor. 13, whereas he singles out faith, hope and love as the prior attributes of them all, he hesitates not to declare that the greatest of these is love.

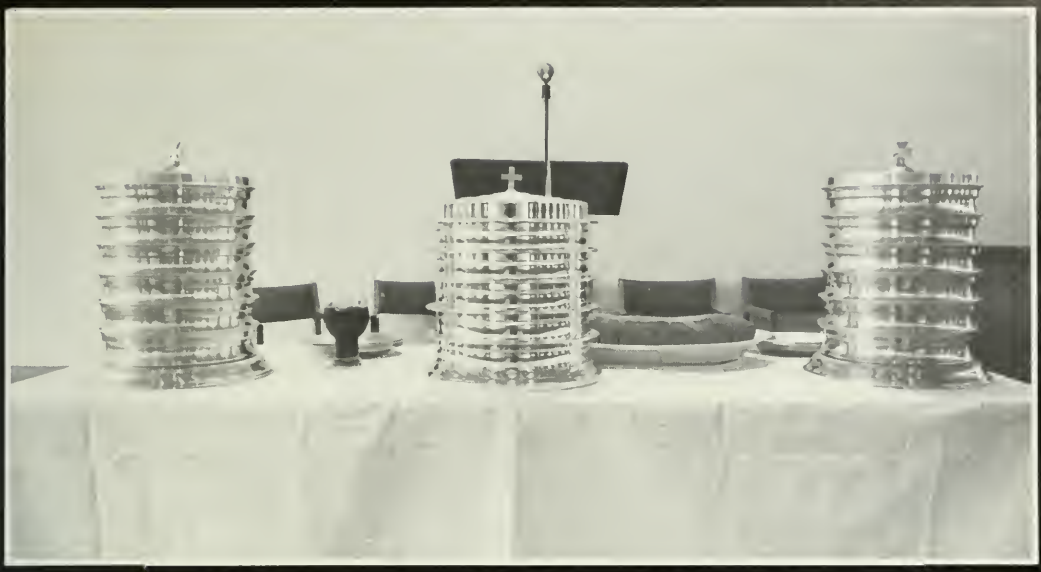
Very simply stated, true discipleship is a multi-sided thing. First and foremost is love for the Lord, and this should intensify with the passing of the days. Then, love for your peers will be an unmistakable badge of your spirituality. And, as the days darken and millions of lost souls continue to surround you in the world around, a genuine love for them will motivate you to do all in your power to reach them for Christ.

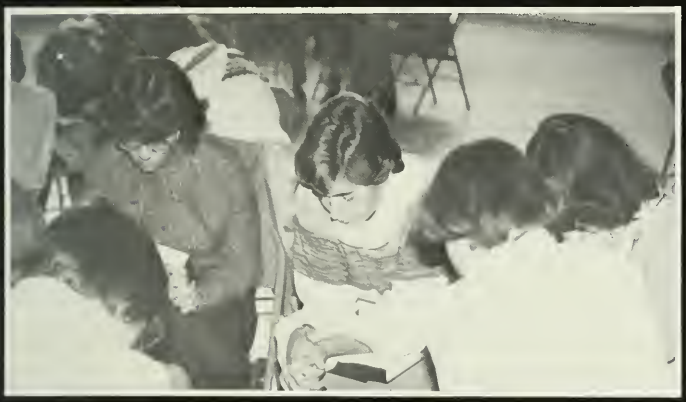
The greatest of all privileges, young people, is to be servants of the living God. Our prayer is that each and every student of OBC/OTS may demonstrate the badge of true discipleship wherever he goes. Then, our text will surely be exemplified- "All men will know that you are My disciples if you love one another."





Love is patient, love is kind.
1 Corinthians 13:4





Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.
1 John 4:11

Bear one another's burdens and thus fulfill the law of Christ.

Ta-da!

Josephine Namath

The majority of us entered through the front doors with feelings of anticipation, bewilderment, and courage. It was Tuesday, September 2, 1980, and we were starting off on a new adventure to which God had called us. The one, two, three, four, or five years we are to spend at OBC were far from our thoughts; first we had to get over the hurdle of FRESHMAN ORIENTATION WEEK.

It was a week of new things; new names and faces, new friends, new roommates, new rooms, new teachers, new activities, new food. Highlights included: the picnic at Centre Island (and the thrill of letting Toronto know that our Lord is real); the unending lineups of Registration Day; the magnificent dinner and fellowship at staff and faculty homes; the horror of the Freshman English Test; the entertaining and edifying Formal Dinner (and the anticipation of what Mr. Bell would be like as a teacher!).

But, foremost, the reality and the presence of the Lord highlighted the week - whether in our Quiet Times, Bible studies, Chapels, times of fellowship, or thoughts on the future - He was there with each of us.

And we would like to thank the faculty, staff, and upperclassmen who gave us a warm welcome and made us feel at home.

Family Picnic

A shoe-string tackle.

Good form J.B., but ya missed again!!

Pruie? What's a Pruie?

Bad weather forced the Family Picnic to be held at O.B.C. this year, but this failed to dampen the spirits of the students and faculty. The day began indoors with singing and an interesting game of hide and seek. This was followed by lots of fun outdoors, namely "Pruie", "Blob" and "British Bulldog". The Upperclassmen had the "upper" hand sportswise.

Final scores were 28-0 (girls' football) and 14-0 (guys' football). Both were Upperclassmen victories. The Students Faculty baseball game was closer with the Students emerging with a 5-3 win. Overall it was an enjoyable event.

Oh, those legs!

Spiritual Life Conference

At the start of each new school year the Spiritual Life conference is held to draw our hearts and minds close to the Lord. This year the speaker was Dr. G. Owyn of Knox Presbyterian Church, Toronto. His message on Sept. 23 was based on 1 Corinthians 6:12-20, with the theme "You are not your own; you were bought with a price." On Sept. 24 his text was Galatians 5:13-6:5. He dealt with keeping in step with the Holy Spirit which he stressed was the only way possible to live the Christian life. Dr. Owyn's ministry here was appreciated.

Special Chapel Speakers

Part of the day to day life at O.B.C. includes chapel hour at 10:00 a.m. During these chapels students often have the privilege of hearing church and mission leaders from the evangelical church worldwide. It is a delight and inspiration to have these godly men and women ministering to us.

Alumni Homecoming

The 1980 Alumni Homecoming was held Oct. 18th with approximately 160 registered for the day. In the morning 3 seminars were held. Topics included Missions, Finances, and O.B.C. - O.T.S. trends. The afternoon program consisted of a Chapel Service. The Alumunus of the year, Reuben Chappell, was presented. Special music was provided by Don Theobald and Mary Reimer. Rev. James Vold gave an inspiring message on "Where in the World is God leading Us?" The day was a great success.

Parents Day

On Saturday, November 1, O.B.C. opened its doors to parents of students. Parents had an opportunity to find out more about the school and meet some of the faculty through seminars and a chapel session. The day was rounded off with a delicious supper and a message from the President, Dr. Adrian.

We have to stop meeting like this.

Really, it isn't as bad as it looks. Giving your blood is safe and easy, at a blood donor clinic, that is. Two clinics were held this year in the gym with about one hundred students at each. Congrats to the winning dorms in this biannual event.

Prayer Days

Amid the business of studies, it is easy to forget the purpose of our being here at O.B.C. To counter this, two days are set aside each year for prayer. This year they were October 29 and February 25. On the morning of February 25 residents of O.B.C. were aroused by a trumpet blast. No, the Lord hadn't come, but there were two speakers blaring a rousing trumpet call in the courtyard. Class prayer chapels and a missions prayer chapel followed. Then a worship and communion service was held. This service was especially meaningful to many students and the Lord blessed with His presence.

Paul Little in action

The theme of the 1981 Global Missions Conference was "I AM A SERVANT". Our theme speaker, Dr. Arthur Johnston, challenged the students concerning our role as joyful servants under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

The week was filled with a variety of sessions, including panels on careers as ministries and the thought provoking Men's and Women's panels.

With the help of several enthusiastic students, the school was decorated to help create a unique atmosphere. The music was also an important feature of the Conference.

The student-missionary interaction was also very good. Students gained a new understanding of what a missionary is really like!

We continue to live as the servants of Christ, looking forward to next year's Conference.

Part of what makes O.B.C. unique are its international students (and faculty/staff). Some of these special people are pictured above. They represent the countries of South Korea, Guyana, Jamaica, Zambia, Malaysia, South Africa, Nigeria, Mauritius, Philippines, Hong Kong and Ghana.

Dorm Suppers

Six dorm suppers are held each school year sponsored by brother/sister dorms. This year we have experienced everything from Noah and the Ark to Alumni Day 2381. Each supper has had memorable moments, to say the least! Each has been entertaining. The efforts of those who participated is appreciated.

Class of '84

Otto Boot, Soc. Rec.; Brian Menchenton, Treas; Ken Middleton, Pres.; Diana Holditch, Soc. Rec.; Debbie Nichol, Sec.; MISSING: Lena Pumber, V. Pres.

The main goal for the class of '84 this year, was to try to develop a closeness and "Unity" with one another as we grew in our relationship with Christ. With this in mind, we tried to make the class chapels a time when members of the class could worship in a more relaxed manner, feeling free to suggest favorite choruses or share items of praise and prayer requests.

The high point of our first year together was the retreat held the first weekend after the Christmas break. We went to a lovely farm in the hills north of Bolten, where conditions proved to be very favourable to snowshoeing, cross-country skiing or just sitting by the fireplace. Under the teaching of Miss Jan Potz, we were able to come to a better understanding of our need of each other and to grow in our friendships.

I think that I can speak for the class when I say that I am looking forward to the coming years when we can continue to strive for that unity that God would have us know as Christians.

Memories...
of the class of '83,
Good times we spent with one another
That's the way we were.

Neil's shortcut
"Tell me where's the 401?"

Our Christmas Banquet
Then our hayride in the snow
All geared to one objective
Discipleship we know.

Inner tubing
On our winter retreat
Washing each other's faces
Tim falling in the street.

Can it be that we were all so rowdy then?
Or simply did we lose our minds?
If we had the chance to do it all again
Tell me, could we, should we?

Memories
May be beautiful and yet
What's too spastic to remember
We simply choose to forget.

So it's the laughter
We will remember
Whenever we remember
The way we were.

Unity is the word that can best describe Class of '82 this year. Through our varied class chapels, two retreats, auction for Ireland, and God's infinite blessing, the class was brought together to attain. the rare existence of Christian unity.

As an Executive we unanimously strove to foster this goal of unity, which had its foundation in the first two years.

We praise God for His grace, His blessings, Jan Potz, and for each individual member of the Class of '82.

To the class we wish to express our gratitude for your willingness to support every zany thing we threw at you. We love ya '82!

One Year Specials

The one year specials of '80-'81 truly were special. Under the capable leadership of Paul and the team, and patient guiding of Mr. John Bell, we had a great year.

Our class chapels were really good, as we spent a lot of time in prayer. After obtaining requests from the faculty and other classes, we prayed together in small groups. The specials also had a good time decorating the lounge for Christmas, selling candies on "Edification Days", and in other weird and wonderful activities.

Mr. Rod Wilson spoke on the theme of unity at our winter retreat, held at the ritzy Jackson's Point camp ground. It's been good to be a part of this fantastic bunch of people! Take care specials.

With all our love, S. and S.

1981, was a year of tremendous challenge. Both the class and the executive sought, through the power of Christ, to understand what Paul refers to as "steadfastness'.

(1 Cor. 15:15) Our committment to Christ, one another, and to a lost world demands such a virtue.

Academic Lecture Series

Where has the current evangelical Church come from? Why is it the way it is? To answer these questions one needs to look to the past and examine the Church's development. When this is done one is both enriched and enlightened.

This was the approach of Dr. Richard Lovelace this year's speaker fo rthe Academic Lecture Series, March 10 - 12.

The theme of his six lectures was The Evangelical Mainstream. In these lectures Lovelace covered Church History from the Puritans to the present day. His lectures were stimulating and informative.

Dr. Lovelace is professor of Church History at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary.

College for a Day

On March 23-24, 1981, over 200 visiting students infiltrated the O.B.C. community, to sample a typical day in the life of a Bible College student.

Their day consisted of school tours, class sessions, chapel services, and discussion periods. Before they left for home ground, David Bell challenged them with the five expectations of college life: one of which we can all attest to - "Hard Work".

Athletic Banquet

The second annual Sports Banquet was held on Wednesday April 1. This event was emceed by Bill Thornton and Jim Evans. The school teams were recognized with the most valuable player chosen from each team. The evening reached a climax with the announcement of the best male and female athletes. This year the best male athlete was Brian Duez and the best female athlete was Sandy Janzen.

This was a notable year for O.B.C. athletic-wise. O.B.C. won the Triads which it hosted this year. Triads was held Saturday, Mar. 21 featuring teams from Emmanuel Bible College, Eastern Pentecostal Bible College, and O.B.C. The O.B.C. Swordsmen hockey team also finished in first place in their league. They were defeated, however, by the Westenders in the semi-finals.

Congratulations to all O.B.C. team members.

Dedication

Dedication of the Yearbook

Miss L. Arndt

This year, the staff of Maxaipa '81, have decided to dedicate the yearbook to a staff member who has received little recognition for her contribution to Ontario Bible College. This woman who toils behind the scenes is Miss Lorna Arndt.

Miss Arndt is well-known for her warmth, friendliness, sensitivity, self-control, diplomacy, and for her tremendous love for the Lord.

Her previous higher educational experiences began with two years at Lougheed Business College. In 1946, she began her study at London Bible College, graduating in 1950 with her Bachelor of Religious Education. Miss Arndt then went to Ryerson - Evening School for Business Administration. In 1960, Miss Arndt came to work as the college accountant, and has worked here faithfully for twenty-one years.

She is also active in her home church leading teacher training and Junior Church. She also works as a consultant for Scripture Press.

To students, faculty, and staff, Miss Arndt, is a prime example of our yearbook theme of Christian love. Through her love for her work and the people around her, she demonstrates a Christian life-style that is appreciated by all who come in contact with her. Thank-you Miss Arndt for your dedication, hard work, and love. May God bless you as you strive to serve him.

Student Council

This has been a year of building for the Student Council. We have attempted to build in the area of communication between administration and students. We sought to create opportunities for students' concerns to be heard by Administration (through the use of forums) and for the goals and objectives of administration to be understood by students.

We have sought to build in the area of student leadership. There was a conscious effort to involve others who were not in specified leadership roles in service to the college (e.g. Youth Retreat).

This year was also a year of beginning with our Open House, and Youth Retreat. God has honored our efforts, and we would like to give Him the thanks for His faithfulness.

We trust that we have been able to serve our community and our Lord.

SCGM

The Student Committee for Global Ministries had an exciting year in 1980-81. Many students' lives were changed in some way through the weekly chapels, missions conference, or one of the World Prayer groups. It was a challenging year under the theme "I Am A Servant." Working together with Dr. Percy and Mr. Sikakane was an honour. We pray for Dr. Percy as he leaves the College after several years. We also pray that God would bless Mr. Sikakane as he takes on more responsibility in the Missions Department.

Devotional Committee

In Isaiah 57:15, two of God's dwelling places are mentioned. He is the high and holy One who "inhabits eternity". Yet He also dwells with "him who is of a contrite and humble spirit", to revive the heart of the humble and to revive the spirit of the contrite. This has been our theme verse for this year. We have sought to "encourage" students in their devotions. We have sought to "refresh" their spirits through our fellowship hours, etc. We have left the "reviving" up to God.

Marketplace

The Marketplace was an exciting endeavour for this year's editors to undertake. We faced many struggles and experienced degrees of anxiety while we planned and prayed for a successful issue each month. God taught us patience and sensitivity to our writers and to our readers. I hope that the Marketplace will continue as a student newspaper to benefit both the community in which the student dwells and the student himself.

Judith Perneel
Co-editor

Mission Team

This year several students participated in an evangelistic crusade in Mexico organized by Operation Mobilization. They were joined by hundreds of other students from the United States and Canada. The outreach consisted of selling Christian literature door to door. The Lord blessed their efforts.

Yearbook

The theme for the Yearbook this year is John 13:35: "All men will know that you are my disciples if you love one another." Truly we all have felt the warmth and love of the O.B.C. Family during our stay here. The love between students, staff and faculty is what sets the school apart. It is this love which is so desparately needed in the world today. It is this love which is the greatest witness to the lost.

It is hard for any Yearbook to try to capture all the events and life of a school, especially one like O.B.C. But it is hoped this Yearbook will preserve some of that life on its pages, as well as serve as a record for future reference.

The Yearbook is not a solo job but a team production. For all those who've helped with darkroom, photography, layout, copy, art, finances, etc. I give sincere thanks. Your many hours of volunteer help have been a witness.

To the rest of the students, especially Graduates: enjoy the book and God bless!

R.A.'S

In many ways I see my role as that of a pastor. I view the guys in dorm as the congregation; the RA's as the deacons and the Community Life Department as the Church board, thus, making it an exciting ministry.

There are many frustrations, challenges and lessons to be learned; as a result, it calls for teachable people. Like any other ministry, a person gains as much as he puts into being an R.A. I have grown spiritually and emotionally and must say that this has been my best Christian service at O.B.C.

In conclusion, I can honestly say that I have come to understand and learned to put I Cor. 13: 1-8 into practice.

Graduation Banquet

Nancy Black, Class Advisor.

On April 10, 1981, the Graduation Banquet was held at the Harbour Castle Hilton Hotel. The combination of live entertainment; good food; the excellent hosting of Mark Wagner and Tannis Suderman; and the beauty of the Hilton itself; led to an enjoyable evening.

A special thanks to the Class of '82 for all their planning and hard work.

Class Day Exercises

On April 16, 1981, the Class of '81 bade their farewell to O.B.C. with their Class Day Exercise Chapel. The theme of their program took the highlights of the Exodus story and applied them to the Class's stay at O.B.C.

To end off the chapel, a slide presentation was shown which relived the past year of the Class of '81.

Thank-you '81 for sharing some lighthearted fun, we are going to miss ya!

Baccalaureate

A memorable event during the O.B.C. year was the Baccalaureate Service held April 24 in Bayview Glen Church. This was the final worship time together for the O.B.C. family.

Bonita Steadman and Andrew Lau gave sincere testimonies of God's grace in their lives. The Class Hymn, The Solid Rock, was sung by the class. The Rev. James P. Vold then gave an inspiring message centering on the theme "Faithful and Fruitful."
